Ambrotypes & Daguerreotypes
BY PARTRIDGE.

The subscriber, at his old stand on Mooree street, is daily producing Ambrotypes, which are taking the place of baguerreotypes. For pivol of the timeness of tone and superior fluish of his pictures, he solicite the examination of a discerning public. He would invite particular attention to his STERROSCOPIC AND TRANSPARENT AMBROTYPES: Also—to Lockets and Pins, made expressly for this new style of work:

the difficulties hitherto preventing securate likenesses of mail children are almost entirely renewed. Groups of persons, of different ages and complexions, Ambrotyped with part difficulty. Protures can be copied by this process so hey will remain unchanged for ages; all Ambrotypes being securations. hermetically sealed between two plates of glass, are warranteeth never to fade.

Caution should be observed against platures called Anahro-types, which are not properly so, being a single plate of glass and liable to be defaced. As the facilities of the undersigned are constantly increasing, he will be prepared to make Daguerrectypes at all prices.

Rooms at the old place until May 1st, when he will remove to his new and spacious establishment east side of Main st, between Union and Monroe, which will be one of the best arranged establishments in the country. The entire length of the rooms, 135 feet. No pains or expense will be spared in the arrangement for producing superior work, and ensuring the comfort of visilors.

A Musical treat our former subscription. We take this step to give our journal the widest possible circulation. The price, then, hereafter, will be free dollars per anum to all who pay in advance, to those who do not pay in advance (only) it will be three dollars. This reduced subscription will still include, as a gift, a portrait, of Morart, which we have had specially engraved for this journal, and which will serve as an excellent title page embellishment for the music solume of the year 1856.

A Musical Novulette will be commenced and published serially with the first number in Janbary. The other valuable features of the journal will remain as before, viz-Four pages of fresh music weekly, paged separately which, bound at the end of the year, will form a volume worth $12; instructive missical reading; articles on vocal and instrumental culture; condensed musical news from all parts of the world. the world.

couplier of this work was invited by the members of Mr. Chay's manily to visit Ashland for this object, of which he availed himself, and examined all Mr. Clay's Letters and Papers, scheeling such as were pertinent to his purpose. By the facilities granted to him by Mr. Clay himself in his life-time, and by the politeness of his correspondents, the com-piller has also been favored with large files of Mr. Clay's original letters. From these sources he has compiled a vol-ume of the private correspondence of Mr. Clay never before published, beginning with 1801 and ending with 1852, consist-ing of about these lennified letters from Mr. Clay himself to phonomen, comming with isses and ending with 1822, consisting of about these hundred letters from Mr. Clay hinself to numerous distinguished public men of this and other countries, to private persons, and to members of his own family, with about an quali number of Letters to Mr. Clay from the same sources. The correspondence presented, between Mr.

Clay and his wife and his wife and children, is copious, and lays open his domestic history, never before given to the public. Letters to Mr. Clay will be found in this volume from Jamis Maddon, Jamis Mondor, Chief Justice Marshall,
William H. Chawwooden, Daviat, Werster, Zaddan Taylon, Jeogr Brooke, and many other public men of a national reputation; also from Layautthe and many other distinguishcel foreigners. Except about hilf a dozen, none of the Six
